NOTE: Residents of Japan should use the following statement only if they are continuing to apply Article 20 of the old treaty because they were entitled to benefits under that article as of March 30, 2004.

I was a resident of _____ [insert the name of the country under whose treaty you claim exemption] on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I am temporarily present in the United States for the primary purpose of studying at the Oregon University System. I will be present in the United States only for such period of time as may be reasonably or customarily required to effectuate the purpose of this visit.

I will receive compensation for personal services performed in the United States. This compensation qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal income tax under the tax treaty between the United States and _____ [insert the name of the country under whose treaty you claim exemption] in an amount not in excess of $2,000 for any tax year. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date specified in the next paragraph.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States to begin study at any U. S. educational institution]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of five tax-years beginning with the tax year that includes my arrival date.
