Japan

I was a resident of Japan on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I have accepted an invitation by the United States government, or by a university or other recognized educational institution in the United States, to come to the United States for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at the Oregon University System, which is a recognized educational institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

The teaching or research compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the portion of the year from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and Japan. I have not claimed an income tax exemption for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date specified in the next paragraph.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States to begin teaching, or research at any United States educational institution]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received during a period of two years beginning on that date.
